Dear PSA Community,

On behalf of all PSA Heads of Schools, I am delighted to be able to welcome you to the 2018 PSA Rowing season.

It seems to me that what the PSA represents – sportsmanship, teamwork, participation, personal excellence and a promotion of service to others – is more important now than ever before. The PSA is and always has been far more than just sport.

The PSA provides many ideal opportunities for boys to excel within their chosen sports and it is all of our hope that they will continue with their sports well beyond their last days at school. Of equal importance is the educational value of the wide variety of sports offered and the collegiality developed between our member schools.

It is appropriate also to acknowledge the outstanding work done by our outgoing Sports Administrator, Ralph Wood, who has worked tirelessly since 2006. We are all delighted that Verity Keogh will assume the role of PSA Executive Officer from 2018 onwards.

I thank in advance all of the coaches, teachers and families for the guidance, support and encouragement they offer all of our boys.

Thank you to all of our communities and best wishes to all boys participating.

Dean Dell'Oro

Public Schools' Association of WA 2018*
